

ROCKY MOUNTAINEER AND BREWSTER INC. ANNOUNCE NEW RELATIONSHIP

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada (February 19, 2009) - Rocky Mountaineer has entered into a long-term agreement with Brewster Inc., a successful company based in Banff, Alberta that specializes in premier tourism and transportation services in Western Canada. Brewster will become the exclusive provider of motorcoach services for Rocky Mountaineer train guests in Lake Louise, Banff and Calgary, Alberta. This will be effective as of April 16, 2009 when Rocky Mountaineer begins its 20th operating season. Brewster's commitment to offering outstanding service mirrors Rocky Mountaineer's own mantra of offering a world-class guest experience while providing a highly attractive tourism product in North America.

"Brewster has always been a strong partner of Rocky Mountaineer and with this new agreement, we are even better aligned to ensure that our guests receive a seamless travel experience from beginning to end," says Randy Powell, President of Rocky Mountaineer. "We see Brewster's service as a natural fit with our company and the overall vacation experience we have provided to over a million guests."

"Rocky Mountaineer's world-class vacation offerings, combined with Brewster's extensive experience in the Canadian Rockies, creates an outstanding travel experience for visitors to Western Canada," says Michael Hannan, President & Chief Executive Officer of Brewster Inc. "We are thrilled to contribute to Rocky Mountaineer's guest experience and look forward to sharing this remarkable destination with their guests."

In addition to sharing a commitment for exceptional guest service, Rocky Mountaineer and Brewster also have strong sustainable development programs and make every effort to reduce their respective environmental footprints. Rocky Mountaineer has continuously strived to become a role model for sustainable tourism in the North American tourism industry and is constantly developing and implementing new initiatives that will significantly minimize environmental impacts.

About Rocky Mountaineer

Rocky Mountaineer offers unique Western Canadian vacation packages and four spectacular rail routes through British Columbia and Alberta. Best known for the world-acclaimed Rocky Mountaineer train, a two-day, all daylight rail journey between Canada's West and the Canadian Rockies, the company also offers trips onboard the Whistler Mountaineer train, a daily three-hour experience between the 2010 Winter Olympic host cities of Vancouver and Whistler, BC. Since its inception in 1990, the company has grown to be the largest privately owned passenger rail service in North America and has welcomed over one million guests onboard. In 2007, Rocky Mountaineer was honoured with the World Travel Award as "World's Leading Travel Experience by Train" for three consecutive years and named by National Geographic as one of the "World's Greatest Trips."
